

ALDEN HOUSE HISTORIC SITE

Bringing History to Life

American Revolutionary War Liberty Pole Day!

Saturday, June 11
11 am—4 pm

Join reenactors & musicians from the Yarmouth Minutemen, His Majesty's First Regiment of Foot Guards in America, and the Middlesex County 4-H Fife & Drum Corps for a trip back in time as they re-create the life of a colonial soldier on the grounds of the Alden House Historic Site.

Schedule of Events:

11 am—Flag raising.

12 pm —Performance by Middlesex 4-H County Fife & Drum Corps.

1 pm —"Tea, Tories & the Almost Battle of Marshfield"-Talk by Patrick Browne, Alden Barn.

2 pm—Skirmish & Liberty Pole Reenactment.

Military drills & demonstrations; tours of Alden House; kids' activities & more throughout the day. Refreshments for sale.

Admission $10 adults; free for kids, students, & members.

Supported by a grant from the Massachusetts Society of the Cincinnati.

Alden Kindred of America, Inc.
Alden House Historic Site
105 Alden Street
Duxbury, MA 02331

Phone: 781-934-9092
Email: director@alden.org
www.alden.org

www.alden.org