

Homeschool Adventures at the Alden House Historic Site

Step back in time to explore the legacy of Mayflower passengers John and Priscilla Alden and their family. This program supports core homeschool history and social-studies learning in early American life and local Massachusetts history. Includes:

- Kid-focused tour of the historic Alden House
- Outdoor scavenger hunt
- Hands-on craft
- NEW hearth-cooking experience at the reproduction colonial hearth

Choose September 24, October 15, or November 12 • 10am -Noon
Ages 6–12 • $10 per student
Advance registration required as space is limited at alden.org

Alden House Historic Site, 105 Alden Street, Duxbury

